The David Follmer Group

The “School Social Work Journal” is a refereed publication intended primarily for school social work students and educators and practitioners in the public schools. Articles in the Journal are directly related to the improvement of social work practice in the schools. These articles report original research, integrative and comprehensive reviews, conceptual and practical positions, effective assessment and intervention methodologies, and model service delivery programs. The journal is published twice a year, in the spring and in the fall, by the Illinois Association of School Social Workers.
